MANHOOD; How Lost, How Restored.

Just Published, a new edition of . Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical care (without medicine) of Spermatorrhoza, or Seminal Weskness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impedi ments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indul gence or sexual extravagance.

Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cts. The celebrated author in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter 82 No goods sold, under any circumstan- what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

"Nothing in particular. I have just recieved a letter from him, and I will wager you a dozen of old port that you cannot guess in six guesses, how he spells cat." "Done! It's a wager."

"Well, commence guessing," said S. "K, a, double te."

"C, a, double t, e." "No, you have missed it again." "Well, then," returned the doctor, 'C, a, double t." "No that's not the way; try again

"No! try again."

-it s your last guess."

"C, a, g, h' t." "No, that's not the way; you've lost your wager," said S. "Well, said the doctor, with much spell it?"

choking with rage, the doctor sprang "Captain S., I am too old a man to dom of the saints set up here in the be, trifled with in this manner!'

MILITARY INVASION OF NORTH

"Why, he spetls it c, a, t," replied

CAROLINA.-A telegram from Raleigh to the New York World, a few days ago, says: "The latest invasion-was that of a body of troops which came from South Carolina on Wednesday night last, and who being good for nothing else, the farmer thought would do for an edit- made a raid on the citizens of Shelby for the purpose of arresting alleged came in the night time, in a very disorderly manner, and their entrance into the town, when all the people had retired, created a panic and terror that can only be experienced in a time of war. A scene of confusion ensued that is indescribable, many persons fleeing

> A BILLION .- What a great sum is a billion! Itis a million of millions. A million seems large enough-but a million millions! how long do you suppose it would take you to count it? A mill work twenty thousand years without stopping a single moment, in order to turn out a billion of pins! It is beyoud our reach to conceive it-and yet when a billion of years shall have gone, eteruity will seem to have just begun-
